

The Different Strokes of Life

Stay away from credit card bug
Live for present; never think about future as God will decide it through your deeds
Keep faith in God
Try to take blessings from the people
Never underestimate anybody
Always try to say that " God, what you have gave me, I am happy for it "
Always try to help others
Take care of your parents : As they are so precious that money can't buy it. They never leave you in your adversity even your husband/wife or children or brother/sister may leave you. Their blessings to you are next to God.
Never compare yourself with others
Always keep yourself busy
Enjoy your life with your own resources
Try to expand your knowledge
Try not to be 100% perfectionist
Try to see yourself naked in front of a mirror : As your body will tell you how much you have leading your life. Every part of your body will show you something. As our body and our mind is identical twin. If our mind is open and youthful to our outer world, then our body will definitely show its indication. Sometimes we saw that our body demands something but our mind does not permit it, so we have to compromise for it to get our self in fine.
Try to share your experience with others but not your secrets
Sometimes do childish works which you have done in your childhood
Whatever may be your profession, do it with love and sincerity
Try to make friendship with a great personality as you will learn so many things from him/her
Try to attend a great man's funeral
Never try to impress others
Always try to appreciate a lovely thing
Look at straight as the rail line
Make yourself versatile if you can
Try to explore yourself
Remember that doing sex is better than smoking
If you can save a dream then thousands will follow it
Think that there is no middle between best and worst in this World
Always try to make your mind young
Sometimes try to smell a bad odor in order to taste a good one
